COMMENT ON THE SUICIDE OF JOHN MUL HALL JE

The suicide on Manday evening of John Mulball, it his law business was extensive and he was apparently business was extensive and he was apparently prosperous. In a letter which was found after Mr. Mulhall had shot himself be gave apparent reasons for his act. He said that he and trusted a frond, a well known resident of the Twenty-third Word, whose the fixed had specific the property of the prope rame he did not reveal, that his friend had spe-lated in Wall Street, losing $17,000 intrusted to him Mr. Mulball, including $5,000 belonging to Mulhall's clients. The letter continued: "I will dis that he repay to my dear wife and family that which they are entitled to, and some day, not far distant, make a clean breast of the whole transaction, placing my name right in the eyes of my founds and with my lips scaled. All that I now ask of him acquaintances. I tried to be honorable. I assure ve this is not my fault, I am innocent. The truth wi some day be exposed, and you will find my name an honor clean. I have been industrious and state working early and late, as you all can bear witness. In fact I have been overwarded, and this order I believe, has affected my brain."

I believe, has affected my brain.

Mr. Mulhall had been active in Republican politics, was a prominent member of several social organizations, and was several years ago a condidate for Civil Justice, and would probably have been cleated had it not been for the condidacy of an Independent Republican. He was implicitly trusted by a large number of his clionis, and made a speciality of real estate business. His funeral on Wednesday was attended by a large number of well-known residents of tended by a large number of well-known residents of the Annexed District, and some of the organizations of which he was a member passed resolutions testifying their respect and esteem. Civil Justice Rogers, of the Tenth District Court, placed among the records of his court a tribute to the high character be had shown in his practice in that court.

It is now alleged on the authority of some of M Mulhall's closest friends and by "The Westchester Times," which has made a thorough investigation of the matter, that the story of the loss of $17,000 intrusted to a friend is entirely mythical. Ex-Judge Ernest Hall, with whoMulhall studied law, and who had been his friend from boyhood, took charpe, at Mrs. Mulhall's request, of the business affairs of the tend lawyer. He says that he finds evidence that I

HE WANTS HIS SALARY

Thomas C. Kadien, formerly City Clerk of Lord Island City, applied to Justice Bartlett, in the Sapreme Court, yesterday, for a writ of mandamus to compel Mayor Patrick J. Gleason to sign warrants for his salary as City Clerk for the months of september. October and November. Mr. Kadlen says that he was appointed in January last to the office and regularly received his salary, up to September. On October 6 without cause. He was locked up over night without without having been charged with any offence of armeeting of the Common Council was held, and he says that Mayor Gleason denounced him for neglect of duty Cloths, new styles; sold for $25.00 put in his place. Kadien says he is ready to perform the duties of the office, but has been prevented. The $11.75 Mayor refuses to pay his salary for September until he absolutely refuses to pay him for the time since his removal. Mayor Gleason affiswers that Kadien was locked up for intoxication on the street, and also that he was in the same condition for three weeks before and musble to attend to his duties. Justice Ratleft granted the mandamus, so far as the salary for september was concerned, but denied the rest, saying that the legality of the removal could not be tried in mandamus proceedings.
